Old business: All State; we are in need of tally room help for the end of the day. Paula is looking for 2 people to help in the judge's room. Food for the judge's room will be listed on sign up genius. The concession is from 8-4 and feed the kids who come; all of the signups are on Genius as of 9/25. We will be loading in the night before in the judge's room. Great way to get your points.

New business: Back ground checks for parents who will be helping at the lock in or field trips. $32.50 filed through the city and finger printing at the DMV. Craft fair is 11/11 we are doing a large raffle of $$ and a smaller raffle. These will be pulled at the December concert. Details will be discussed at the October meeting. Parade on Veterans Day 11/11 Sat. Help is always welcome. At the football games help is needed. Last games 10/6, 20 and 27th. Pass out drinks after the half time show. All State: Please go to sing up Genius for food and helping in the rooms. There are points to be made even if you cannot be there!

Faculty Report: Mr. Russell presented that there is the coffee cake fundraiser going until 10/10 and that the ad book will be starting soon. The stage in the auditorium was painted this summer. To redo it would need a grant. Lighting was purchased from some used lighting from UNH this summer and will help with the lack of lighting that was on the stage. Mr. Russell explained Tri-M-NMHS which is the largest music honor society. It's doing and going extra in grades and taking 2 music classes. Students can apply second semester at any grade. Band camp was fun and everyone got along well. A pep band is being formed by one of the seniors in band. Mr. Brien finished with Demo night and said that it was great. The orchestra played " Shut up and Dance". 10 students are going to UNH for the day on 10/14 for Fall Festival. Students auditioning for Allstate pay $15 and if selected pay $180 for the weekend event in the spring.

Meeting adjourned at 7:50 motion made by Melanie and seconded by Deanna. Next meeting is October 19th @ 6:30 in the chorus room. All are welcome.
